100 free things to do at Scituate Town Library!

1. Get a library card (good at all 28 Old Colony Library Network libraries).
2. Reserve and enjoy books, audiobooks, DVDs, and CDs.
3. Use WiFi or a public Internet computer.
4. Download library eBooks and audiobooks from any internet connection.
5. Search the 3 million items in the online catalog.
6. Renew items online, in person, or by phone.
7. Use reliable, kid friendly, resources to do homework, online or in person.
8. Email a librarian for research assistance.
9. Research Scituate history.
10. Reserve a pass to visit a local museum or zoo for free (or a small charge)
11. Get help from the ultimate search engine – a librarian.
12. Bring your newborn to the children's room and meet other parents.
13. Reserve the meeting room for your non-profit group.
14. Ask for assistance from the friendly, knowledgeable staff.
15. Attend a job search workshop.
16. Use the online databases for homework assignments and research projects.
17. Trace your family tree.
18. Pick up recommended reading lists.
19. Utilize the NoveList Plus database to help you choose what to read next.
20. Read the latest bestsellers and magazines.
21. Select a novel from the "Busy Parent's Shelf" in the children's room.
22. Learn about upcoming community and cultural events.
23. Play board games.
24. Use library resources to start a small business.
25. Learn how to find local child care providers.
26. Read the latest medical research reports online.
27. Consult consumer guides prior to major purchases.
28. Sit down, relax and catch up with the daily newspapers (and the weekly Mariner!)
29. Check out large print books for easier reading.
30. Follow the library Facebook pages.
31. Share a puzzle with your toddler.
32. Attend an author program.
33. Enjoy the artwork on display in the gallery.
34. Schedule a library tour for your group or class.
35. Learn to knit with your child.
36. Join a book discussion group.
37. Open an email account to stay in touch with family and friends.
38. Find a new recipe.
39. Use travel guides to plan your next vacation.
40. Explore your "roots" with HeritageQuest and Ancestry Library databases.
41. Pick up the monthly calendar of library programs and events.
42. Attend the annual "Astronomy Day".
43. Schedule a research workshop for your students.
44. Interact with an artist at a "Meet the Artist" program.
45. Curl up in a comfy chair and gaze at the view.
46. Attend story time with your preschooler and learn a new rhyme!
47. Check out the new collections of graphic novels.
48. Be inspired by books on home decorating.
49. Volunteer
50. Cool off in air-conditioned comfort on a hot summer day.

51. Select books for summer reading.
52. Trek to another planet in a Sci-Fi novel.
53. Find materials for the sixth grade Ancient Civilization project.
54. Attend a "Family Game Night".
55. Join the Zombie Survival Club.
56. Learn how to take care of your new pet.
57. Donate your used books to the Friends of the Library book sale.
58. Listen to audio books during long car trips.
59. Introduce your grandchild to the library.
60. Explore the Braille Book Collection in the children's room.
61. Be notified by email when items you have requested become available.
62. Bring home a DVD for family movie night.
63. Attend Lego Club and build something spectacular.
64. Choose a book from the Parenting Collection in the children's room.
65. Create a resume.
66. Taking a course online – ask a librarian to proctor your exam.
67. Use a library computer to renew your automobile registration.
68. Attend family programs sponsored by Stellwagen Bank National Marine Sanctuary.
69. Learn to identify the birds in your backyard.
70. Use the yearbooks in the History Room to plan your high school reunion.
71. Have a long commute? Listen to audiobooks (downloadable and on CD).
72. Check out a video game.
73. Enjoy book displays located throughout the library.
74. Participate in wellness and relaxation programs.
75. Attend intergenerational Pajama Story Time hosted by Scituate's "Story Teens".
76. Join the Homework Club or Latin League.
77. Bring babies and preschoolers to sing along with MamaSteph.
78. Saturday morning KidPower with Mike McCusker (October – April).
79. Become a foreign film buff.
80. Parenting workshops provided by South Shore Community Action Council.
81. Attend a concert.
82. Get a book to identify what you find in tide pools.
83. Compete in a Guitar Hero tournament.
84. Enjoy the monthly exhibits in the glass display case.
85. Flood safety information provided by FEMA.
86. Learn how to download an eBook onto your Kindle.
87. Enjoy summer crafts with your kids.
88. Attend family movie events (snacks provided).
89. Use the Scituate Food Pantry collection basket to help a local family.
90. Consult staff for reading recommendations.
91. Get tax forms online.
92. Enjoy a "Star Party" on a clear summer night.
93. Ask for help searching Massachusetts General Laws.
94. Attend a Research Awareness workshop.
95. Place holds on the over 25,000 DVDs shared by the OCLN libraries
96. Consult the Massachusetts Adoption Resource Exchange listing of adoptable children.
97. Catch up on a favorite TV series on DVD.
98. Apply for jobs online.
99. Pick up a booklist of suggested titles for tweens.
100. Soar to far away places with a travel DVD.